JOSE HIDALGO

FULLSTACK DEVELOPER

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

I am a FullStack developer with solid training in web development implementing backend and frontend, with experience working as a freelancer, group and personal academic projects with agile work methodologies.

I am looking for a company where I can add value from my experience, face new challenges and interest in scalability.

EXPERIENCE

PROJECTS I HAVE BEEN PART AS DEVELOPER

- Tea e-commerce.

1 month team project with weekly sprints. The objective of the project was to create an e-commerce implementing the backend and the frontend with a payment and authentication system based on Json Web Tokens.

- Food SPA.

Creation of a CRUD SPA that consumes the Spoonacular API together with the database, from which you can filter the results, sort alphabetically, by rating, and create new recipes. The technologies used were Javascript, Redux, Express, PostgreSQL, Sequelize and Styled-Components.
